do not respect you as a person, who do not have a good upbringing, who lack affection for your country because they are not allowed to be proud of their country - then you are in the wrong country." Those words sound like something from another era. Back in the 1970s, I did not hold Austrian flags in my hands. I did not have banners saying "Heil Hitler" and "ein Volk, ein Reich, ein Fuhrer". But I did study history, something that most of today's youth rarely do, so I understand that you can't un-learn something.
